

This diploma is designed to train international students for the automotive repair industry. Acquire advanced knowledge, skills, and attitudes necessary to carry out job duties in a safe, ethical, and professional manner. Obtain extensive skills to apply practical, communication, and business skills to be successful employees in the industry. Graduates of this program may find employment in the automotive repair sector. International students are not el

